

The West: Resources and Economy

United States Climate Regions

LEGEND
	Tropical wet (hot and wet all year)		Subpolar (short, cool summers, long, cold winters)
	Tropical wet and dry (hot; rainy and dry seasons)		Polar (cold year-round)
	Semi-arid (dry, hot summers, cold winters)		Highland (temperature varies with altitude)
	Desert (very dry, very hot summers,)		Marine (mild year-round)
			Mediterranean (hot, dry summers, rainy mild winters)
			Humid subtropical (wet, hot summers, mild winters)
			Continental (mild to hot summers, cold winters)

Agriculture

Logging

Fishing

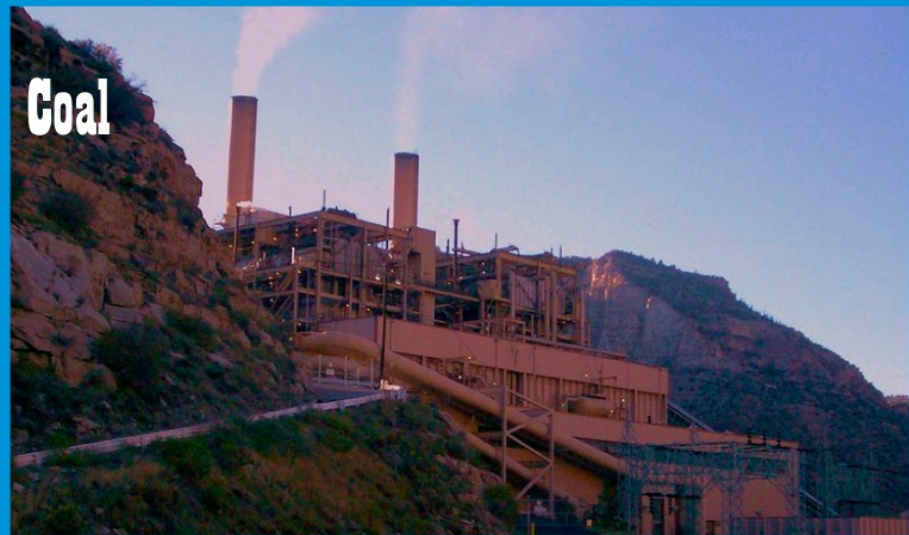

Salmon

Alaskan King Crab

Mining

Government-owned Land in the West

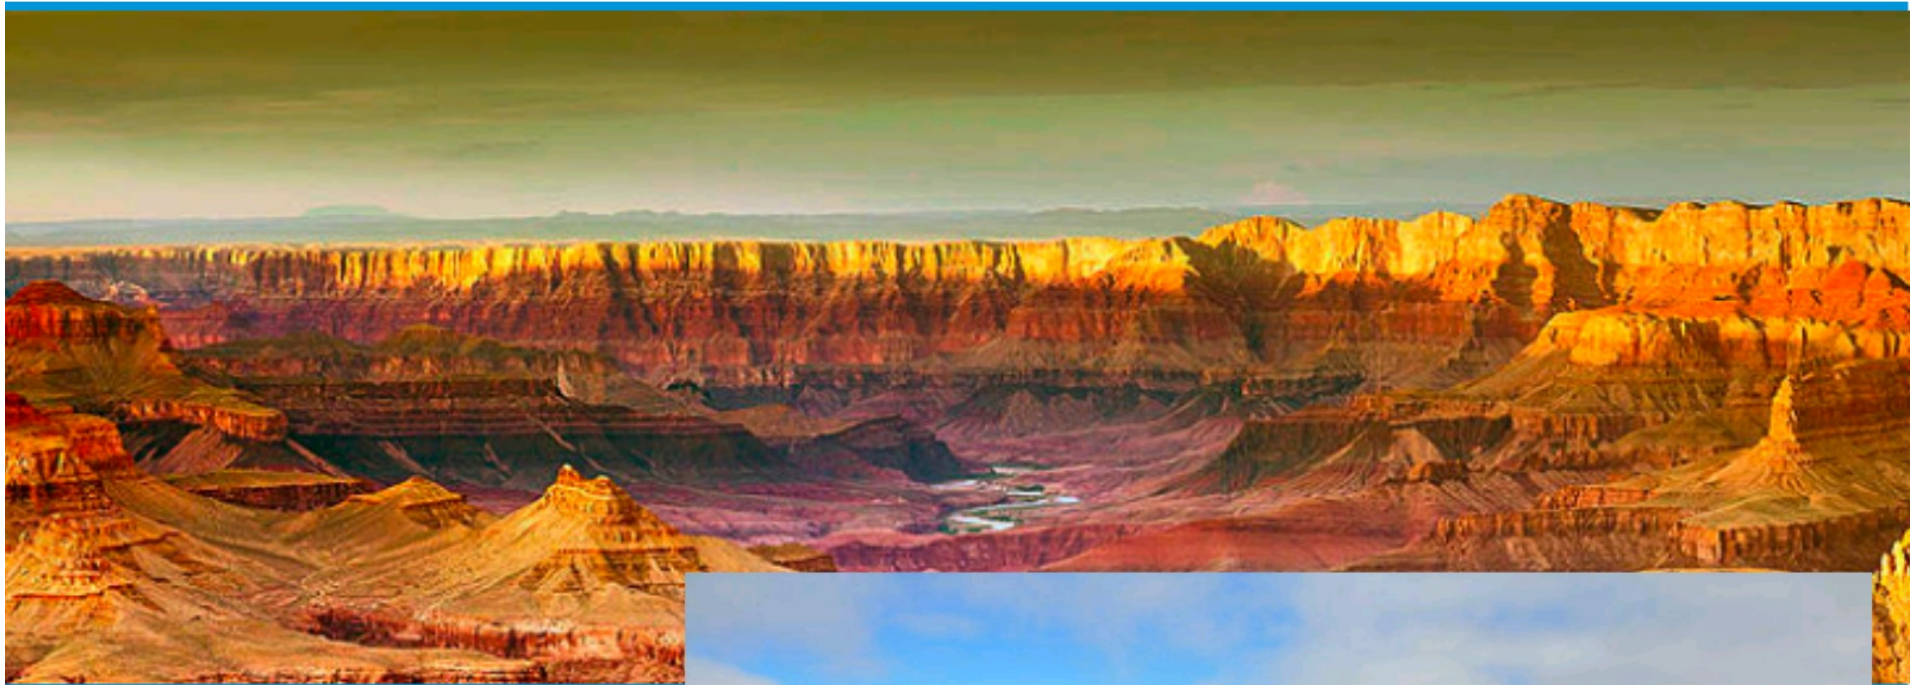

Yellowstone National Park

Glacier National Park

The Grand Canyon

Sequoia N.P.

Zion N.P.

Craters of the Moon National Monument

